

Film festival plans special additions

Posted: Thursday, January 22, 2015 10:15 am

0 comments

The Beloit International Film Festival (BIFF) is offering new venues, new attractions and great fun as part of its 10th anniversary.

One event, the popular Silent Film Showcase, will be featured Feb. 28 at the Castle, 501 Prospect St, featuring "The Phantom of the Opera."

Randal Kleiser, director of the 1978 musical "Grease," will be the honorary chairperson for BIFF this year. And, "Grease" will be the Sing-a-long movie this year, with guest of honor retiring City Manager Larry Artt and his wife, Karen.

Read more in Thursday's edition of the Beloit Daily News.