

Beloit International Film Festival Preview Films

Rockford (WIFR) -- In preparation of the Beloit International Film Festival, which begins in February, they had a preview showing of a few films today in Janesville.

One of the more anticipated movies at the Ramada in Janesville today was "Someone You Love: the HPV Epidemic" which was sponsored by Beloit Health System. The documentary follows five women and their journey with HPV and cervical cancer. The Beloit International Film Festival will also be showing a few more movies today including one of them poolside.

"We come to Janesville a few weeks ahead of time to give people a taste of the festival up here and you know just getting ready for the big launch on the 20th of February."

The 10th annual Beloit International Film Festival begins February 20th and runs until March 1st. This year it will feature over 200 films.
